

D. C. SAMMY SENDS HOME MONEY TO BOOG A TAG

"I don't think this war will last much longer," writes Bugle Sgt. Henry Loveless, a life long resident of Washington, to his grandmother, Mrs. Mary E. Loveless, 2704 G street northwest. "The Germans are getting the worst of it, especially from the American soldiers. The American, French, and English soldiers are killing the Germans right and left."

Sergeant Loveless is now instructing buglers in France and serving under officers of the old District National Guard.

He further describes what the soldiers' minds are occupied with:

"Memorial Day was celebrated in this town with speeches by the colonel of the regiment and some French officers. The graves of the French and American soldiers were decorated with floral wreaths."

"I feel better and look better now than I ever did before in my life."

"Within the next two months I will send some money home through the Y. M. C. A. Put it in the Postoffice Savings Bank at Seventh and F streets."

"Look in my trunk and take that book down with you so they can give me credit for it. If you need any of the money, use it. Let me know if you are still getting an allotment from the Government. Let me know if my dog is still all right. When I send money home, take enough of it to buy him a tag."

URGES INTERVENTION AS DUTY OF JAPAN

TOKYO, July 10.—Under the title "Japan's Duty to Russia," in the July issue of Taishun, Marquis Okuma's new monthly, Dr. Takahashi, professor of international law and member of the House of Peers, deals with the subject of Siberian intervention, and most comprehensively urges the duty of Japan to save Russia because Japan defeated the Russians a decade ago, and is probably responsible for the present war situation, owing to the exposure of Russia's weakness.

Dr. Takahashi was among the nine university professors who recently strongly advocated active intervention. In the course of developing his views he says that statesmen and publicists who do not consider the imminent danger of the present situation ignore the far-reaching influence of German activities in Europe.

NINE MORE AMERICANS PRISONERS IN GERMANY

The War Department has ascertained that nine more soldiers of the American expeditionary forces are now prisoners of war in Germany. They are:

First Lieut. Harold H. Giff, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Lieut. Clarence M. Young, Alton, Ill.; Corporal Frederick R. Hyde, Chester, Vt.; Privates Edward Thune, Syracuse, N. Y.; Paul C. Vedlic, home address not known; Frank Daley, Hyde Park, Mass.; James E. Morton, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada; Louis Pecorello, New Haven, Conn.; Charles B. Reese, Nova Scotia, Canada.

SOLONS AT CONVENTION; HOUSE NOT IN SESSION

With a large delegation of the House departing today for Atlantic City to attend the Elks' convention, that body was not in session today.

A three-day recess was taken by the House. It will convene again Friday. The water power bill will be taken up again then.

In spite of the failure of the plan for a recess of a month, House members are still hoping for a vacation through a series of three-day recesses. Little expectation of a recess by agreement of both houses is entertained.

LUTHERANS AT BEACH.

Lutheran churches of Washington and Baltimore, today are observing "Lutheran Day" at Chesapeake Beach, where they are holding their annual reunion and outing. Henry Anstadt, of the Lutheran Memorial Church, will preside at a program of music and brief speeches this afternoon. The principal speaker will be the Rev. J. E. Harris, D. D., pastor of the Holy Comforter Church, Philadelphia. The excursion is being given under direction of the Luther League Central of each city.

A Thrift Stamp means a quarter for Uncle Sam, no quarter for Kaiser Bill.
